

DEAD OR ALIVE.

A Reward of Five Thousand Dollars Offered for Weyler.

One Thousand Dollars to Be Paid for Every Spanish Officer Killed.

A Company of Texas Rangers, Armed With Sharp's Needle Rifles, Doing Sharpshooters' Duty—Insurgents Spare Soldiers But Not the Officers.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 20.—A man who gives his name as Carroll, representing a western manufacturer of dynamite, passed through here Thursday on his way home from Cuba. He went over on the last trip the filibustering tug Dauntless made. He says that she transferred her cargo to a fishing smack not far from the Cuban coast. Carroll went on board the smack and was landed at a point within 60 miles of Havana. He made his way through the country to the capital, seeking some of the insurgent leaders in the interior.

Carroll states that the insurgents have a standing offer of $1,000 for every Spanish officer killed and $5,000 for Gen. Weyler, dead or alive. A company of sixty Texas rangers, armed with Sharp's needle rifles, carrying wind gauges and telescopic sights, are in the field doing sharpshooters' duty. Each ranger is accompanied by a native with a field glass. The natives scan the country for officers and wherever one is found the ranger tries to drop him. The rifle weighs 28 pounds and will kill a man five miles away. The rewards account for the high death rate among the officers. The insurgents spare the Spanish soldier as much as possible, believing the privates have no feeling against them. But the rebels have determined to give no quarter to officers.

Carroll said his information has been corroborated from another source that the seat of filibustering operations will be transferred from the south Atlantic coast to the gulf coast.

Working on the Message.
CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—A Washington special to an evening paper says:

President Cleveland ordered the door to his den closed Thursday morning and directed that an assortment of stub pens and writing paper be brought to him. He gave directions that he was not to be disturbed for any reason until he gives the signal. Then he commenced work on his last annual message to congress.

Nominated for Supreme Court Justices.
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 20.—The democratic convention Thursday nominated Andrew Cobb, of Atlanta, and W. H. Fish, of Americus, to be supreme court justices. W. H. Little and Justice Samuel Lumpkin were nominated Wednesday.

PLEAD GUILTY.

Dramatic Ending of a Murder Trial at St. Paul, Minn.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 20.—The trial of Rev. James C. Hull, for the poisoning of his wife, came to a dramatic end Thursday afternoon. Mr. Hull changing his plea to guilty. A few minutes before noon Prosecuting Attorney Butler placed in evidence a letter which Hull wrote last February to a pastor in California, saying his wife was slowly dying of a cancer and that she could not live the year out. This letter contradicted Hull's previous testimony, and especially as it had been shown that Mrs. Hull did not have a cancer and that Hull was aware of the fact, having been told so by Dr. Hawkins, his family physician. At the opening of the afternoon session, S. L. Pierce, Hull's attorney, advised Hull that the California letter in effect convicted him and counseled a plea of guilty. This Hull did, and Judge Egan sentenced him to six years in state prison in Stillwater. Hull had insured his wife's life for $2,000 and spent several weeks trying to poison her with arsenic.

MRS. JEFFERSON DAVIS

And Daughter Winnie Attend the Annual Ball of the Daughters of the Confederacy at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20.—For six successive years the annual ball of the Daughters of the Confederacy has been the society event of the season in this city, and Thursday night the immense hall of the Merchants' exchange was crowded with "the children of the lost cause" and their guests.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis, the venerable widow of the leader of the confederacy, and daughter Winnie, were guests of honor. It is Mrs. Davis' first visit to St. Louis since her husband was a union soldier and stationed at Jefferson barracks fifty years ago.

A notable incident of the evening was the visit to the ball room of a number of union generals in attendance at the reunion of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee and their presentation to Mrs. Davis and the wives and daughters of those who wore the gray.

GOOD NEWS

Received by the Secretary of the Cuban Junta.

The Eastern Half of the Island Entirely in the Insurgents' Hands.

Public Schools Being Instituted Throughout the Interior and Civil Government Established—Cuban Forces Gradually Advancing to the Westward.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Secretary Dequesada, of the Cuban Junta, states that he has just received most favorable news of the situation in Cuba.

"I have just heard by mail," said Mr. Dequesada, "from Gen. Carrillo, in charge of the province of Las Villas. He informs me that he has just met Gen. Sanchez, who was coming from the eastern department with reinforcements, and that the situation presents a most cheerful aspect in that section, which embraces the larger half of the eastern end of Cuba. I have also received letters from the eastern department, from Céspedes, which are also very encouraging. He is establishing public schools throughout the interior. The fact that we have already established civil government in the eastern half of the island, which is entirely in our hands, and that schools have already been instituted, open to the less intelligent, proves that our position in those provinces is certainly a most strong one. Although nothing of importance has reached me yet in relation to the military operations of the Cuban leaders, I have received word that the Cuban forces are gradually advancing westward.

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 20.—A number of prominent Cubans arrived by the steamer Olivette from Havana Thursday evening and will make their homes in Jacksonville and Ocala until the conflict ends. They say any honest man who has any respect for his family can not live under Spanish law as it is administered on the island.

A prominent Cuban said, relative to the engagement reported between Maceo and Weyler, that important battles had been fought and that Weyler had been defeated. Owing to the surveillance of the government, definite news has not been received in this country, but that it was true all Cubans in Havana knew through their official sources. He stated this information could be given the American people with every confidence. They further stated that Port Au Principe, Casaca and Guaimaro were all in the hands of the Cubans under Calisto Garcia and his aides. Among the reports is one that Weyler is wounded.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

Resolutions Adopted at the Meeting of the National Grange.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—At the meeting of the National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, Thursday, the report of the committee on resolutions, which was adopted, recommended a stable currency; that United States senators be elected by the people; equal protection for the farmers; pure food legislation; rural mail delivery and referred to the value of the experiment stations and agricultural colleges; expressed sympathy with Cuba and stated that the grange would receive with joy the settlement of the vexed question between England and America. It favored arbitration whenever it can be resorted to without sacrifice of honor.

A lengthy report from the committee on railroads was made by Chairman Mersick, recommending several amendments to the inter-state commerce law to more fully carry out a purpose, the chief one being that the commission have power to make rates.

A resolution calling upon the incoming administration to give suitable protection to agriculture, so that our national burdens shall be more equitably distributed, after some discussion, was defeated by a small majority.

The Platform Fell.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 20.—About 6 o'clock Thursday night, just after the compress had shut down, and while a gang of 25 men in charge of Superintendent Amos Cordson and his brother, Hiram Cordson, were at work on it, the south end of the platform at the Central railroad compress broke down, carrying to the ground 3,000 bales of cotton and the men at work. Thirteen of the number were injured, but none of them seriously.

Train Wrecked by Dynamite.

HAVANA, Nov. 20.—A train conveying troops was wrecked near Mangus by the explosion of dynamite bombs which had been placed in position by rebels. Fourteen persons were wounded. The train was crossing a culvert when the explosion occurred. The insurgents had placed live bombs for the purpose of blowing up the train, but one of them did not explode. It is said here that the rebels thought that Gen. Weyler was on the train.

The Cleveland Horse Show.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 20.—The attendance at the horse show continued large Thursday. An exciting incident Thursday evening was a collision between Nolen Volens and the stallion Buckeye, which spilled the drivers out on the tank and smashed one of the wagons, but nobody was hurt.

Ohio Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The following postmasters were appointed Friday in Ohio: T. P. Hoadley, Mitchaw, Lucas county; A. Cochenour, Newburg, Ross county; and H. Sullivan, North Bend, Hamilton county.

THREE MEN

Under Arrest Charged With Being the Assassins of Hon. Frank P. Arbuckle.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The central office detectives have arrested three men on suspicion of being the assassins of Hon. Frank P. Arbuckle, of Denver, Col., who was found unconscious and dying at Eighth avenue and 132d street early Thursday morning. Capt. O'Brien detailed Detectives Vallely, Mannion, Murphy, Cale and Thompson to investigate the case. They learned that on Wednesday night Arbuckle was seen in the company of a gambler named George Stevens, in Luchow's restaurant on 140th street, near Union square, with two other men. The detectives arrested Stevens Thursday night. He is 53 years old. Stevens at first denied all knowledge of Arbuckle or having been in his company. After being locked up for awhile, Joseph Davidson, 20 years old, who said he was a stenographer, was confronted with Stevens in his cell. When Davidson saw Stevens in the lockup, he said: "Well, I see you are in trouble, too, about Arbuckle." Stevens made no reply. When Davidson was searched one of Arbuckle's cards was found in his pocket. The detectives also arrested Fred Menger, 22 years old, a bartender.

Menger says they were all together in Luchow's restaurant and that Stevens was trying to induce Arbuckle to go up town and play cards. Menger had a row in front of the restaurant, when he poked Davidson. He says he does not know what became of Arbuckle after that. On the card found in Davidson's pocket was an appointment to meet Arbuckle some time Thursday.

Chasles Butler, a Negro night watchman, arrested late Thursday night on suspicion of having some knowledge of the death and supposed robbery of Mr. Arbuckle, was discharged from custody Friday morning. The police have become satisfied that Butler knew nothing about the case.

It is now the belief of the police that Arbuckle was first drugged, then placed in a cab somewhere downtown, taken to Bradhurst avenue and 132d street and robbed and then carried to the sidewalk on Eighth avenue and left to die.

The best sleuths on the police force are now engaged on this case and surprising developments may be made public at any moment.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

Decides to Contest the Election of Eleven of the McKinley Electors in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 20.—The announcement was made Thursday by Secretary Richardson, of the democratic committee in Kentucky, that his party had decided to contest the election of eleven of the McKinley electors in Kentucky. The election of the foremost elector on the republican, O. O. Kash, is conceded. He ran 244 votes ahead of the leading Bryan elector, who ran ahead of his associates over 2,000 votes. The other McKinley electors received a larger number of votes than the other Bryan electors. Irregularities and fraud in numerous counties form the ground for the contest.

Three Dashed into Eternity.

CONCORD, Ky., Nov. 20.—A frightful accident occurred in this city at 11:17 Thursday night, in which three young people were dashed into eternity in the twinkling of an eye at the railway crossing. The unfortunate victims were the Misses Lulu and Lizzie Lind, daughters of the proprietors of the Lind hotel in this town, and Al Pollock, a young attorney, who was returning in a buggy with the young ladies from a party given some miles west of town.

All Voted for the Major.

WEST LIBERTY, Ky., Nov. 20.—Squire E. W. Ellington, who lives in Magisterial district No. 11, in Morgan county, has broken all previous records by furnishing 75 nephews, 31 cousins and one brother who voted for Maj. McKinley at the last election. Squire Ellington is 80 years of age and never voted but one democratic vote, and that was for Hon. John W. Kendall, (now deceased) for congress six years ago.

Telephone Wires Torn Down.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 20.—Three times in the past week night raiders have destroyed the telephone wires between here and Farndale. Mr. Farmer, the agent at Farndale, is the owner of a lot of turnpike stock and the vandals who are tearing down the wires are supposed to be a part of the anti-tollgate raiders.

HIGHWAYMEN

Hold Up Street Cars at Cleveland—The Crews to Be Armed.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 20.—Several street cars have been held up here by highwaymen lately, but for fear of injuring traffic, the street railway companies have refrained from making the facts known to the police. Stringent measures were taken by the officers of the "Little Consolidated" Thursday to prevent repetitions of the attacks and all of the conductors were provided with revolvers and instructed to remain in the cars in isolated sections. Like their western prototypes the Cleveland highwayman have not neglected the street cars, and three times have cars, when occupied only by the conductor and motorman, been attacked. The conductors are terrorized. On some of the lines cars frequently decline to stop in isolated places where the danger of a hold-up is most feared. Thursday a delegation waited on Supt. Mulhern and asked further protection. The matter was taken under advisement and later the men were directed to go armed.

GOLD WATCHES

By the Satchelfalls Stolen From a Traveling Salesman.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20.—M. Klippart, traveling salesman for Hipp, Didsheim & Co., 83 Nassau street, New York, was robbed at the Union passenger station here Thursday evening of a valise containing $5,000 worth of gold watches. Klippart had boarded a Big Four train for Cincinnati carrying two satchels, which he placed in the seat beside him. Seeing an acquaintance outside he left the car for a moment and when he came back the valise with the valuable contents was gone. Though the car was full of people no one could give the slightest clue to the robbery.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20.—The satchel containing $5,000 worth of watches, stolen from M. Klippart, a New York traveling man at the Union passenger station Thursday night, was found Friday in the hallway of an office building on High street, with its contents intact. No clue.

Columbus' New Morgue.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 22.—It was discovered Thursday that the new public morgue here just completed has been located across a street. It was the intention of the authorities to build the morgue at the corner of McDowell and Mound streets. The discovery is that the morgue stands directly across McDowell street. That part of McDowell street is little used and so grown over with grass and weeds that it seems to have been confounded with the lot intended to be used for the morgue. The authorities are endeavoring to place the blame for the blunder.

Refused to Indict McElhinney.

WOOSTER, O., Nov. 20.—Carolyn McElhinney, the seven-year-old boy charged with second-degree murder for killing fourteen-year-old Tommy Kidd, was not indicted by the grand jury. The jurors, in their report, declared that the boy, by reason of his youth, was not capable of comprehending the nature of the charge preferred, but finding him without proper parental care, on account of the death of his father, recommended that he be admitted to the Soldiers' Orphans' home at Xenia.

A Cleveland Block Burned.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 20.—A big Superior street block, owned by Congressman R. C. Parsons, and occupied by W. H. Luckenmeyer & Sons, wholesale hardware, was destroyed by fire Friday morning. The building valued at $75,000 and stock valued at $100,000 were both total losses. Both were insured. One of the members of the firm and two employees were burned about the faces and hands before they could escape from the building. The fire was caused by an explosion of furnace gas.

A $30,000 Blaze at Canton.

CANTON, O., Nov. 20.—A large frame building formerly occupied by the Danner Manufacturing Co., but more recently by three smaller concerns, the Standard Harness Hardware Co., the Canton Pattern works and the Canton Specialty Manufacturing Co., burned at an early hour Friday morning. Loss $30,000, well covered by insurance.

Beet Sugar Factory in Rome, N. Y.
ROME, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Negotiations are about completed for the establishment in this city of a beet sugar factory. The first New York beet sugar company, with a capital of $800,000, has been incorporated for the purpose and the capital is practically all in. The plant at Farnham, Quebec, 40 miles north of Montreal, is to be removed here, the owners there retaining the principal interest. Farnham is not in the "sugar belt" but central New York is in the heart of it, and yields beets that produce 40 per cent. more of sugar than the Canadian beet.

Capt. DeLisle Held for Trial.
MONTREAL, Nov. 20.—Capt. DeLisle, of the steamer Tiber, under arrest charged with manslaughter, in connection with the running down of the schooner Maggie and drowning 13 persons in the harbor of St. Johns, N. F., was arraigned Thursday, pleaded not guilty and was bailed in bonds of $10,000. The inquiry proceeds Friday.
